READING 1 EZ 6:7-8, 12B, 14-20

King Darius issued an order to the officials of West-of-Euphrates:

"Let the governor and the elders of the Jews continue the work on that house of God;

they are to rebuild it on its former site.

I also issue this decree concerning your dealing with these elders of the Jews in the rebuilding of that house of God:

From the royal revenue, the taxes of West-of-Euphrates, let these men be repaid for their expenses, in full and without delay.

I, Darius, have issued this decree; let it be carefully executed."

The elders of the Jews continued to make progress in the building, supported by the message of the prophets, Haggai and Zechariah, son of Iddo.

They finished the building according to the command of the God of Israel and the decrees of Cyrus and Darius and of Artaxerxes, king of Persia.

They completed this house on the third day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

The children of Israel—priests, Levites, and the other returned exiles—celebrated the dedication of this house of God with joy.

For the dedication of this house of God, they offered one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, and four hundred lambs, together with twelve he-goats as a sin-offering for all Israel, in keeping with the number of the tribes of Israel.

Finally, they set up the priests in their classes and the Levites in their divisions for the service of God in Jerusalem, as is prescribed in the book of Moses.

The exiles kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

The Levites, every one of whom had purified himself for the occasion, sacrificed the Passover for the rest of the exiles, for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

GOSPEL LK 8:19-21

The mother of Jesus and his brothers came to him
but were unable to join him because of the crowd.
He was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside and they wish to see you."
He said to them in reply, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and act on it."

Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Carolyn Woo assumed the deanship in 1997 of the Mendoza College of Business, which currently is ranked #1 for its undergraduate business program by Bloomberg Business Week for the second consecutive year. During her tenure, the college also received top rankings for its MBA, EMBA and Master of Science in Accountancy programs, as well as business ethics and accountancy.

Dr. Woo was recently appointed President & CEO of Catholic Relief Services. According to Dr. Woo, "CRS serves people whose lives generally have been so violently affected that they lose their loved ones, their livelihood, their homes...everything that is so necessary to daily living. The Catholic Relief Services team is the first appearance of hope on scenes of devastation, and the promise that a future may be possible."

We welcome Dr. Woo, and look forward to hearing her speak to us on the topic, "The Grace & Gift of Catholic Education."

Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels

Standing in the midst of downtown Los Angeles, the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels serves the total Archdiocese of over 4 million Catholics. As the heart of all 287 Parish Churches and communities, it is the place where the Archbishop celebrates the major Liturgies of the year with clergy, religious and laity.

The Cathedral serves as a "model Church for all Parish Churches" in the style and content of its liturgical celebrations. In design, art and furnishings, the Cathedral is rich in cultural diversity in a city in which Sunday Mass is celebrated in 42 different languages.

On behalf of
The Most Reverend José H. Gomez,
Archbishop of Los Angeles,
Msgr. Kevin Kostelnik, and the entire Cathedral Staff, we welcome and thank you for attending.
